The

Bayou Tapestry

Unto Our Axemoor Family,

The holiday season is now in full swing. We hope that everyone's Thanksgiving was pleasant and that it was spent enjoying the company of loved ones. With Thanksgiving now behind us, we are now on a direct path towards Christmas Revel. We are thoroughly looking forward to it. We would like to thank everyone for their hard work towards bringing Our first Revel as your Baronage into a reality, the menu looks delicious the schedule looks packed with both entertaining and enlightening activities, and we anticipate great things at this event.

We would ask that each of you volunteer wherever you can during this event. However, we would also ask a special favor to all of the Axemoor's newest members. When we first joined the Axemoor family, back in the days before we had names, personas, or any real idea about what direction we wanted to go in the SCA, we had the opportunity to sit back and enjoy this magical event as players. We would ask you to do the same. There is a reason that so many people look forward to this event, it's packed full of entertainment as well as people. During this event you will have the opportunity to thrust yourselves into every aspect of the SCA that is offered. Please do so. It is very easy to get sucked into working the entire weekend. Although your help will be greatly appreciated, please take the time to enjoy the activities as well. If you want to fight . . . fight. If you want to enjoy the arts and take some classes . . . please do. If you feel like serving . . . lend a hand, but do not feel obligated to push aside your own interests.

We want Our new members first Christmas Revel memories to be as wonderful as Our own. The Revel tournaments were the first tournaments that we fought in. Her Excellency and I fought in every tournament to include the Newbie list and the William Marshall. Her Excellency even entered her first A&S that Revel. These memories will live in Our hearts forever, and we hope the same for you.

Experienced members of Our family, we task you as well. Please ensure that if you see any new member to either Kingdom or Barony, take the time to make this Revel magical for them. Other than that, we all have been through this before. Let's make this Revel one to remember!

In Service,

Baronos Gellir & Baronessa Brigida

Greetings Populous,

I cannot believe that we are already in December! As Her Excellency Gillian La Dyer steps down from the Seneschal position I want to thank her for all she has done for us these last two years; it has been a fun ride and we look forward to just spending time with you!

At this time I would like take a moment to introduce myself to those of you who don't know me. I am Lady Taddea de Trieste, also known as Andrea M. Stermin. I am originally from Michigan and came to the south after Hurricane Katrina with the Red Cross. I was assisting in the Gulfport, MS area and decided that I liked it so much I found a job and a place to live. I became very involved in the SCA through the Barony of Seleone. While attending events like Christmas Revel, I met all the wonderful people from the Barony of Axemoor and any time I was able, I offered my services as a worker to this group as well as Seleone. Time passed and I began working in New Orleans so it was only appropriate for me to move closer to my employer. I relocated to Slidell and became a member of this wonderful Barony. Everyone here has accepted me and made me feel at home. I cannot express how wonderful that feeling is. I decided that I wanted to give back to the Barony and when the opportunity of Seneschal came up I decided to put my name in for it. So here I am, the Seneschal for the Barony of Axemoor, my home.

I know the next few years will present challenges and trials but I know that this group thinks of ourselves as the "Tribe" or the family. We will have our disagreements, and things that will stress us but we will pull together and still be known for our strength as a group. I am very excited and looking forward to working with each and everyone of you discussing new ideas, planning events, and other ways to move forward with our local group by getting many of our new people involved in ways that cause success for our Barony.

I am at your disposal and if you have any ideas that you want to share, need to talk, or just want to offer service in any way please do not hesitate to email me or call me my info is listed below.
